1.4 Non-Discrimination Policy

Here at SHU, we celebrate diversity in all its forms as it contributes to the intellectual milieu of an educational institution of higher learning. Therefore, in accordance with our vision and mission statements, the University does not discriminate against any person on the basis of ethnic origin, linguistic background, caste, color, sex, gender identity, religion, age, race, or disability in admission to, access to, treatment in, or employment in its programs and activities. This commitment is a manifestation of one of our core values: 'Respect & Tolerance'. Every effort is made to ensure fairness and consistency in the University's relations with its students, faculty, and staff. Likewise, SHU expects its stakeholders to comply with all applicable anti-discrimination laws of the land.

1.5 Privacy and Confidentiality Policy

SHU holds sacred the privacy of individuals and the information contained in their records, on occasions where the law sanctions reasonable expectations of privacy. SHU ensures and upholds the confidentiality of its students, faculty and staff alike as far as their financial, academic and employment records are concerned. Our Privacy and Confidentiality Policy is the embodiment of one of our core values, 'Integrity.'

The University is committed to taking every reasonable step to protect the confidentiality and privacy of the information contained in the records of its students. Unless compelled to do so by law, or authorized by the student in writing, the office of the Registrar will not disclose the confidential contents of student records to any party outside the University.

Employees of SHU are permitted access to information contained in student records only if they need to know the information in order to perform their official duties. As a general rule, only employees involved in some aspect of academic administration or student affairs are given access to the contents of student records.

Students have the right to inspect all documents contained in their own record and they also have the right to request that erroneous information contained in their record be corrected.
