

Mohammed Nishat, PhD
Professor of Economics and Finance
Institute of Business Administration (IBA), Karachi. Pakistan

Responsibilities include teaching at graduate and postgraduate level, and during Chairperson of Economics and Finance and Associate Dean tenure curriculum development, introduction of new degree programs, executive education/management development programs, international linkages with reputed universities for faculty development and student's international linkages programs, guiding research and routine administration of IBA. Earlier at Applied Economics Research Centre (AERC), University of Karachi responsible for teaching MPhil/PhD program, Incharge Graduate Studies. Working as Project and Co-Project leader with teams deputed on research studies awarded to the AERC by the international institutions e.g., World Bank, Harvard Institute of International Development, IFPRI, USAID, LSE-IGC as well Federal, Provincial, and Local government agencies. Doctorate from Auckland Business School, University of Auckland, New Zealand and Masters in Management Sciences and Economics from University of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada with 30 years of research and teaching experience. My PhD thesis is in Finance. It looks at the Impact of Institutional Development on Stock Prices in Pakistan. Author and co-author of 50+ research articles in Pakistani and foreign professional journals. Presenter in national and international conferences in finance and economics. Member on BOG, Selection Board and Syndicate of various Universities/ Business Institutes and corporate entities in Pakistan. Vice Chairman, National Business Education Council of HEC.

KEY QUALIFICATION AND EXPERIENCE

Education

PhD in Economics (specialised in Financial Economics/ Finance) from Auckland Business School, University of Auckland, New Zealand, 1999.

Master of Applied Science in Management Sciences from University of Waterloo, Canada, 1984.

Master of Arts in Economics from University of Waterloo, Canada, 1982.

M. A. S. in Economics, Applied Economics Research Centre, Karachi, 1978.

M. A. Economics, University of Karachi, 1973.

B. Sc., University of Karachi. 1971.

Teaching

Taught a number of graduate level courses at IBA, AERC Master's program of the Dept. of Economics of University of Karachi. These include Theory of Finance, Financial Econometrics, Investment Analysis and Theory of Portfolio Management, Financial Economics, Quantitative Methods, Econometrics, Managerial Economics, Mathematical Economics, Manpower Planning and Public Finance, Research Methodology.

At undergraduate level taught courses in Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Banking and Finance, Econometrics and Basic Mathematics for economists both at the Department of Economics of University of Karachi, Pakistan and University of Auckland, New Zealand.

Research/ Research Supervision

Expertise and vast experience in Econometric Modelling and policy oriented research. Considerable experience (over 35 years) in conducting and analysing farm and household surveys. Completed a number of research studies based on secondary data. Fairly experienced in evaluating, assessing and appraising economic and social programs. Involved in preparing market studies for industrial feasibilities. Supervised 7 PhD and